

Fallen Angel

In my time of deep trouble
A glorious angel
An angel of kindness
An angel of light
Appeared to me sweetly
And offered me love

My only true friend
She saved me from death
She helped me to hope
And brought joy to my life

*Angel, Angel, I'll thank you—always.
Angel, Angel, I'll love you—always.*

Then came the change
Then came the rage
A strange, terrible alchemy
Dragged my Angel down to hell

*Fallen Angel, addicted to rage
Dangerous devil, no hope to save
I witness your pain
I witness your sorrow
I see the false thoughts
That keep you below*

Fallen Angel, I weep for you
Though you saved me
Nothing, nothing I can do
Can now save you

*Fallen Angel, I'll love you—always.
Angel, Angel, I'll miss you—always.*
